FLOOR DEBATE

May 13, 2003

LB 407

But I just am not convinced that this will result in the savings when we're already over...we're already at 132 percent of capacity. And even letting some out that I guess you'd call it early, I don't know whether we can continue to do that. There's just so many factors that I don't understand, but I am not feeling like I'm making a good decision. So on that basis, I'm going to oppose the amendment.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein. Senator Vrtiska. Is Senator Vrtiska on the floor? He waives off. Senator Stuhr, on the Pedersen amendment.

SENATOR STUHR: Thank you, Mr. President and members of the body. I plan to support Senator Pedersen's amendment. I do this because I don't think we're doing this hastily. We've been talking about making some changes for a number of years. I think that I've said before, this is not business like usual. We do have to make some tough decisions, and I believe that this is one. We've delayed the implementation. I do not see that we're going to get this issue settled by having more studies, more studies and more studies, which seems to be what has been...what we've been doing in the past years. Sometimes, in times of crises, we do have to react. I think Senator Schimek said, well, we don't know what the effects of this proposed cut will be. Do we really know what the effects of some of the other proposed cuts will be? I don't believe so. That's my personal opinion, but I don't believe. Why are we doing this? In the last five years, costs in Corrections has doubled. What are we going to do? I'm going to support Senator Pedersen's amendment. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Stuhr. Senator Schimek. Senator Schimek waives the opportunity. Senator Stuthman.

SENATOR STUTHMAN: I would call the question.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question before the body is, shall debate cease on AM1778? All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted who care to? Record please, Mr. Clerk.
